

Speed Dating: Homebuyers Edition

Print and cut out the following conversation starters, then ask each other these questions to get you both on the same page.

How much savings should we have in case of emergencies?

Will we repair the home ourselves or hire professionals?

What features are you looking for in your future home?

How long do you see us staying in this home before selling?

How will we split the profits when selling?

Who will mow the lawn and rake leaves?

How often should we deep clean the house?

Are there any upgrades you would like to add to our future home?

How many homes do you want to look at before making an offer?

What kind of neighborhood do you want to live in?

Do you want to bring pets or kids into the home?

What are your home-buying deal breakers?

What sort of entertainment options, amenities or businesses do you want nearby?

Would you ever consider leasing out this property in the future?

Would you rather buy a fixer-upper or a turn-key home?

What's your ideal price range for our future home?
